

Cuts and grazes

Thoroughly irrigate superficial cuts and grazes with a large volume of drinking water until there is no foreign matter in the wound.

Pat the wound dry with a sterile swab then cover with a sterile plaster or low-adherent dressing

Seek medical advice if you are unsure if the child's tetanus immunisation is up to date

